

CLOSING FLOODLIGHT DATES

SECTION B winners Slough Town travel to meet the top club in Section A (either Leatherhead or Cheshunt) in the Premier Floodlight League semi-final play-offs on Tuesday, May 9. Meanwhile, Wycombe Wanderers close their programme at Oxford City on Thursday, May 18.

Marlow travel to Chesham tonight (Tuesday) in their penultimate competitive fixture of the season, when they tackle United in a Section B 'derby'.

Honours between the side are even so far this season as Marlow took both Athenian League, Division 1 points by 2-1 when at home then drew 2-2 at Chesham in the return.

But United exacted a remorseless vengeance at Marlow in the floodlight league winning 4-0.

WYCOMBE Sunday Cup finalists International Tools are playing Chesham Sunday Cup finalists Santos at Penn and Tylers Green F.C. on Sunday in aid of the "Teddy Knott Memorial Fund." Another match in aid of this cause is Wycombe Combination's friendly fixture against the Reading League at Flackwell Heath on Saturday, May 7. Both games start at 3 p.m.

MIKE KEEN

... charity match

First kick to Eric!

COMEDY star Eric Morecambe makes his first excursion into the realm of team managership as "boss" of the Mike Keen XI, which plays Wycombe Wanderers at Loakes Park on Wednesday, May 3.

Morecambe, a keen soccer enthusiast and director of Luton Town FC, will also kick-off the match, organised by "Hatters" skipper Keen to raise funds on behalf of the Wycombe and District Minor Leagues, whose severe financial plight was revealed recently in the Bucks Free Press.

A special feature of the evening will be penalty-kick competitions, run in three age groups — under 14s, under 15s and under 16s, the finals of which are to be held during the interval.

The banner that follows Wanderers on their glorious way around the Isthmian League circuit has become a leading symbol of success for the men of Loakes Park as they bid to retain their Isthmian League title.
