

Dulwich Hamlet.
WYCOMBE
Wanderers,
recovering after a
slow start to the season, have drawn Barnet in
the fourth qualifying round of the
FA Cup.

And, as the club
embark once more
on the Wembley
trail, the fans will be hoping for a
repeat of that
notable run of a
few years ago
when they took mighty Middlesborough to a
third round
replay.

Manager Andy
Williams is reasonably
happy with the draw,
and is also pleased

with the way his team
is shaping up.

The Wanderers are currently ninth in the
Berger Isthmian
League's Premier Division.

"We're picking up a bit now, we're doing
reasonably well," said Andy. "We have won
four out of the last five home games."

Andy believes the return of striker Terry Scott and defender
Steve Hardwick —
who were both
unavailable at the start of the season —
and the arrival of mid-field man Jimmy Jacobs have given the side a boost.

Scott scored one of the goals in Saturday's 2-1 home win
over Dulwich Hamlet.

Wanderers draw Barnet

The other came from Howard Kennedy.

Andy said of the game: "We played
some really good football but then relaxed a bit, and they came back into it."

Next on the agenda
for the Wanderers are two matches against Harlow Town.

Town visit Wycombe
on Saturday for a
league match, then, on Tuesday, the Wanderers travel to Harlow on Hitachi
League Cup business.

Andy said: "Harlow
were promoted last season and they'll be well organised and will work hard.

"But if we maintain
our league form we
should do well."
