

Blues back to second

SATURDAY was a great day for Wycombe as far as the Isthmian League Premier Division title race is concerned, as both main rivals slipped a little.

Firm favourites Slough dropped two points when held to a 1-1 draw at Barking, while champions Enfield fell to a shock 3-0 defeat at home to a rejuvenated Hendon.

In the hunt

All of this means that Wycombe leap back into second spot just two points behind Slough who, however, have three games in hand. So the Blues are still in the hunt and next Saturday they entertain Dulwich Hamlet, who slipped to their sixth successive league defeat on Saturday.
