

Sutton provide the first test

WYCOMBE Wanderers open their Berger Isthmian League programme with two home matches — the first against F.A. Trophy runners-up Sutton United.

Sutton claimed the scalp of Wycombe on their way to Wembley so Blues will be eager to gain some measure of revenge on the first day of the league season on August 15.

Wycombe follow this with a home match against Staines on the Tuesday before travelling to Bromley on August 22.

Their first competitive match of the season will be at Slough for the Dylon Charity Shield on August 8. The match is traditionally played between the league and league cup winners.

Slough won both and since Enfield, who finished second in the league have gone to the Alliance League, Wycombe, who finished the season third, were the next choice.

However, the first match of the season will be a friendly at Hillingdon Borough on August 4. The only other pre-season friendly will be a home match against Metropolitan Police, who play in Division One of the Isthmian League, on August 11.
