

Ex-Wanderer Rob takes over

FORMER Wycombe Wanderers utility player Rob Williams has been appointed as manager of Chalfont St Peter, following the sacking of Alan Ackrell almost a fortnight ago.

Williams, whose previous managerial experience includes several seasons in the hot-seat at Staines, originally applied for the post back in May after Keith Molton resigned but was overlooked, and Ackrell preferred.

However since Ackrell's departure, Williams, who has been on the Chalfont playing staff for a year, has been caretaker boss, and on Tuesday evening his new rôle, on a permanent basis, was announced officially at a committee meeting.

Chalfont presently occupy the lower reaches of the Athenian League but Secretary Dave Putnam said: "We think Rob can bring success to the club."
