

Lee should go — not Keen

DOES Brian Lee think he will get away with this one? — telling Mike Keen his contract will not be renewed next season.

This comes after all the upset Brian himself had made — getting rid of Jock Sheppard, the mess-up with the ground, the transfer of Howard Kennedy and the trouble with Kit-Care, to name but a few.

Supporters know that Wycombe needs a new chairman — not a new management staff — and they will make sure they get it this time.

Then if Mike Keen is back, maybe the Reserves will be back, too — another little thing Mr Lee axed. They might be committee decisions but really it's a one-man-band up at Wycombe — the man Brian Lee.

Let's all get together and make sure we get rid of him as chairman.
