

Reserves one win away from title

WYCOMBE Reserves can give first team manager Mike Keen the perfect leaving present by winning the Suburban League title before he departs from Loakes Park in a few weeks time.

Victory over Hendon Reserves a week on Saturday will clinch the championship for the Blues' second string and provide a fitting parting gift for Keen.

Ironically, lifting the title will also justify the dethroned manager's faith in a reserve set up which is also being axed.

Wycombe moved closer to their goal on Saturday with a 3-1 victory over Farnborough Reserves thanks to two strikes from Kevin Stone and one from Steve Thorne.

Burnham finished their Athenian League season on a flat note by drawing 1-1 at Ruislip Manor.

had taken a shock lead seconds after the interval. last three matches — anything is still possible.

But the South Bucks side never looked like scoring the hatful of goals required to dislodge Chalfont St Peter at the top of the table.

Burnham have now finished their last ever Athenian campaign two points behind Saints and in danger of losing second place to Redhill.

Substitute Derek Cleeve ensured that Flackwell Heath finished their Athenian programme on a high note by scoring the only goal in their 1-0 win at Fleet.

Goals from Mark Adams, Eggie James and Paul Currie gave Chesham their latest victory by 3-1 at Cheshunt.

Beaconsfield United inflicted more misery on bottom-of-the-table Ambrose Fleming by defeating them 3-0 in the London Spartan Premier Division.

An own goal put the Rams ahead before the interval and further strikes from Anthony White and skipper Phil Sewell sealed the points.
