

Busy time for Bence

WYCOMBE Wanderers' new manager Paul Bence is going to be a very busy man over the next few weeks.

Bence, who arrived back with his players from Malta on Saturday, is planning to fix up individual meetings with all of his playing staff before the start of pre-season training on July 17.

"I want to meet them all on their own to have a chat and try and sort out any problems," said Bence.

The Blues' boss described the recent two-match tour of Malta as a "very worthwhile experience".

"It helped me to get to know the players and officers of this club on a social level," said Bence.

"I honestly think if we had gone there with a full squad we would have won both games easily.

"But the tour did give us a chance to try out some of the youngsters and that's always good."
