

Same old story

WYCOMBE Wanderers centenary celebration match against Leicester City gave the club, and local press yet another opportunity to remind us of that 'historic' F.A. Cup run during 1974/75.

A season later, in 1975/76, non-league Wimbledon also played Middlesbrough, in the same competition. They now meet in league matches.

Wycombe Wanderers have, or have had, a great deal of potential.

Has Brian Lee any ambition at all?

If the club have a bi-centenary celebration, and I sincerely hope that they will, will they, and the local press, still proclaim 'that historic F.A. Cup run' as Wycombe's greatest achievement? — C. Truster, 106 Hicks Farm Rise, High Wycombe.
