

Striking duo could face former club

STRIKERS Simon Read and Declan Link could face their old club, Staines — if Wycombe come through their hazardous FA Cup replay on Wednesday night.

For the Blues or Burton have been drawn at home to either Staines or Hastings United from the Southern League in the 1st round proper on November 17.

Staines snatched an amazing equaliser eight minutes into injury time at Hastings on Saturday to salvage a replay which takes place tomorrow (Tuesday).

If the results work out right, Link and Read will face the club they left in the summer to come to Loakes Park.

Incentive

Blues boss Paul Bence was delighted with the draw.

"The chance of playing against their old club, Staines, should provide Declan and Simon with tremendous incentive to do well on Wednesday night," he commented.

"But my thoughts are getting through the fourth qualifying round at Burton.

"I would rather have had Hastings or Staines before Burton, but that is the way it goes. A home draw is obviously beneficial."
