

Clubs back in action after enforced break

SENIOR clubs are hoping to swing into action again this weekend after their enforced Winter break.

Some have been idle for several weeks but the arrival of warmer weather could mean a full soccer programme.

Flackwell Heath travel to Abingdon in a bid to reach the fourth round of the Berks and Bucks Senior Cup.

Heathens' Isthmian League Division 2 (North) match against Tring was called off on Tuesday night because of frost.

Chalfont St Peter could overhaul Flackwell in their private league battle if they win at Wolverton Town.

Marlow face another weekend of twiddling their thumbs after their home game against Finchley was postponed because their opponents are involved in an FA Vase tie.

London Spartan League Premier Division leaders Burnham will hope to consolidate their position at home to Hanwell while second-placed Beaconsfield play host to bottom club BROB Barnet.

Amersham Town boss Paul Terpilowski will be aiming for full points when his side travel to struggling Corinthian Casuals.

Collier is snapped up

BURNHAM star Nicky Collier has been snapped up by one of Wycombe's Isthmian Premier division rivals, Wokingham.

At one stage Blues were showing an interest in the talented midfield man who trained at Brentford in the close season.

Spartan League leaders Burnham have signed Maidenhead Town's Colin Halliburton as Collier's replacement.

Burnham have also lost the services of reserve team manager Frank Durham who is stepping down after three years in charge because of

And a win for Chesham United over Basildon on Saturday would keep them in contention at the top of the Isthmian League Division 1.

Wycombe Wanderers Reserves are at home to Southall Reserves.

business commitments.

Mark Rose takes over as caretaker player/manager.

Sixty compete

SIXTY crews have entered Sunday's three-mile Marlow Head of the River race on the Thames. The Marlow club four of Simon Cook, Roger Hatfield, Dave Rendell and Chris Spracklen will lead off at 11.30am.

England place

BUCKS darts ace Joe Dodd has been included in the England squad after reaching the qualifying average.