

Chaos over fixtures

WYCOMBE officials worked overtime at the weekend in a bid to sort out chaotic fixture problems.

Blues were originally due to meet Croydon tonight (Tuesday) but they have a Surrey Senior Cup tie.

Instead, Wycombe will travel to Carshalton to play a match which was postponed earlier in the season.

Paul Bence's men also face the real prospect of being without a league match on Saturday.

Opponents Tooting and Mitcham are also playing in the Surrey Senior Cup.

So Blues must hope for the right outcome in another Surrey Senior Cup tie match between Sutton and Epsom and Ewell tonight.

If Epsom win Wycombe will meet Sutton in the league at Loakes Park on Saturday.

But if, as seems likely, Sutton triumph Blues will be without a fixture.

To cover this eventuality, Wycombe have provisionally arranged a friendly with Uxbridge at Loakes Park on Saturday.

Manager Bence obviously wants to keep his men in action.

He described the winning display against Stortford on Saturday as "a good, all round team performance."

"We could and should have won by more goals but, in saying that, Stortford had a good run going up until Saturday," added Bence.

Blues will be unchanged tonight against Carshalton.
