

But Gane warns — it will get harder

BLUES boss Alan Gane described Tuesday's win as the best of the season but then warned "Lets not go overboard."

"We have had a great start but it will get harder and harder for us now," he cautioned.

"Everyone will want to beat us and wreck our winning record so every game will be difficult."

But Gane was delighted with his team's display.

"Hayes is not an easy place to come and win," he said.

"The lads slackened off towards the end of the first half. I told them to continue playing the way they were for the second half and they did just that."

The Wycombe manager said he was delighted with the performances of Graham Bressington and Neil Price.

"Graham did ever so well and set up a great first goal," he stated.

"Neil is looking stronger and quicker with every game — and I think the whole back four did exceptionally well."

Wycombe will be looking to pick up their fourth away victory in seven games tomorrow's when they travel to Bromley.

The South East London Club are midtable with two wins and a draw from five games.

Crushed

They beat Tooting and Mitcham 1-0 on Tuesday night but were crushed 6-3 at Farnborough on Saturday.

Kevin Collins' first League effort of the season and a lucky own goal inspired Blues to a 2-1 victory over Bognor Regis at Loakes Park on Saturday.

Collins gave them the lead in 12 minutes when he won a challenge with Bognor keeper Alastair Sperring.

Graham Marriner gave away a needless own goal in 82 minutes before John Crumplin pulled one back seven minutes into injury time.

Keeper Gary Lester had to be substituted just after half-time, coughing up blood, after being kicked in the back.

What a start!

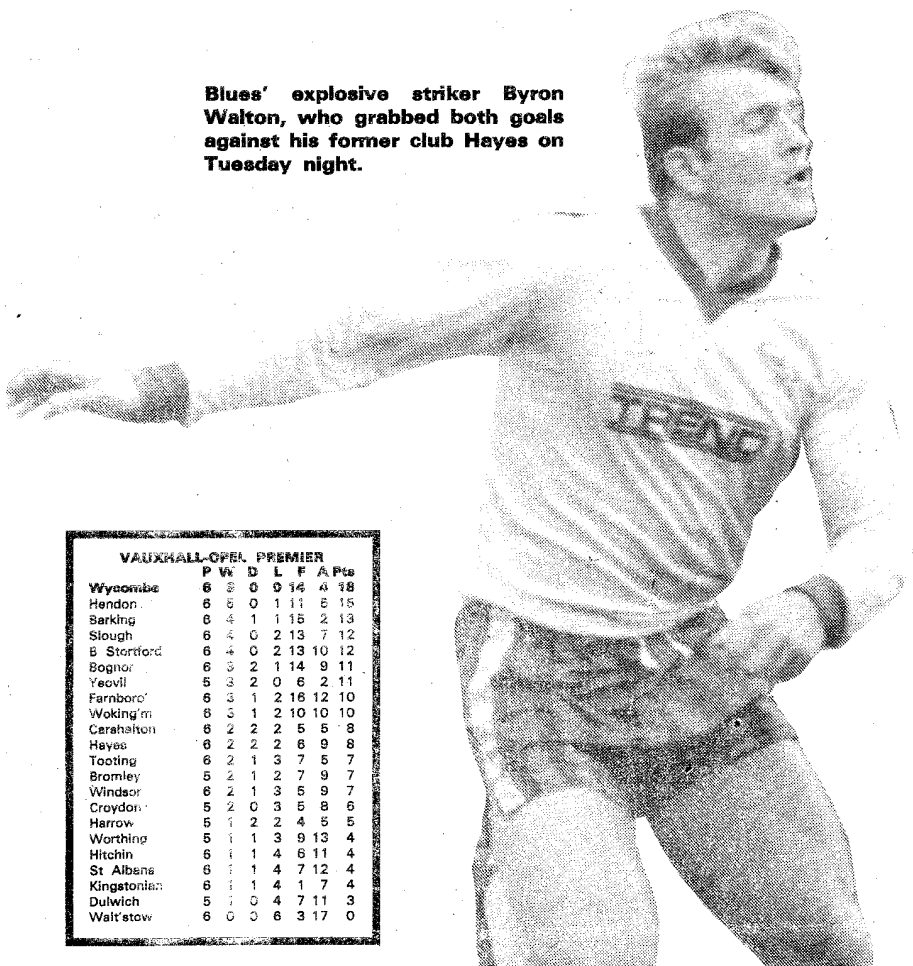

WYCOMBE Wanderers are enjoying their best start to a season for 14 years.

You have to go back to the 1972/73 season to find out when they last won their opening six games.

But they still have a few matches to go before they equal their best over start — nine straight wins in the 1970/71 season.

BYRON BLASTS FORMER CLUB

Blues' explosive striker Byron Walton, who grabbed both goals against his former club Hayes on Tuesday night.
