

STAR HURT IN BLUES BLITZ

Key player doubtful for away clash

BLUES' biggest worry is star player Noel Ashford who missed Tuesday's game because of an injury against Hendon.

Ashford is rated as having only a 50/50 chance of making tomorrow's game away to Bishop Stortford.

The Blues scraped through to the next round of the A.C. Delco Cup 2-1 after extra time.

A disastrous back pass by defender Kevin Day allowed Worthing to nip in and take the lead during the first half.

A lead they held onto until a couple of minutes to full time when much to their dismay and Wycombe's delight Jason Seacole scored to send the match into extra time.

Mark West secured the match for the Blues when he stuck the ball past Worthing keeper Simon Stack to make it 2-1 seven minutes into the first period of extra time.

Last Saturday Blues blitzed Hendon 5-0 in the Vauxhall-Opel League to maintain their two point lead from Yeovil. The goals came from Keith Barratt, Noel Ashford (1 pen) Andy Graham 2 and Byron Walton.
