

FULLBACK RILEY QUIT

WYCOMBE'S long serving fullback Anthony Riley has decided to leave Loakes Park.

Riley, who has made 114 appearances for the Blues and was becoming an almost permanent fixture in the side this season, is on his way to the Midlands to take up a new job in Rugby.

"Riley's been an important part of the side," said Blues boss Alan Gane.

"He's a good lad and I'm sorry to see him go."

After Saturday's win at Worthing, Gane was delighted with his side's performance.

"I'm pleased we carried on after the penalty and we needed the three goals to give us that confidence in front of goal which had been missing in the last few games."

But his selection problems have not eased as the Blues prepare for tonight's (Tuesday) Berks and Bucks semi-final clash with Abingdon at Loakes Park.

Mark Dawber is ruled out, probably for the rest of the season, and Graham Bressington and Kevin Durham are both doubtful.

"With the injuries in the side the squad had been reduced but the way we played today we won't need anyone else," said the Blues' manager.

Although Gane would not be drawn on transfer speculation, he could be tempted this week as the market enters its end of season busy period with the deadline fast approaching.
