

Injury-hit Wanderers seek new signings

Blues buy up the loan stars

● INJURED: Neil Price

The dynamic duo strengthen squad

By RUTH PAYNE

WYCOMBE Wanderers were due to sign Graham Westley and Barry Little from Barnet this week.

The two players have played at Loakes Park from the last month while on loan from the London Club.

Manager Peter Suddaby was missing from Tuesday's Capital league game against Brentford which ended in a 1-1 draw as he was checking on another player.

Assistant Manager John Reardon revealed there are several other possible signings in the pipeline.

The scorer of Tuesday's goal was Rowan Dodds.

The Blues face Enfield tomorrow (Saturday) with three of their key players injured.

Broken

Graham Bressington who broke a bone in his foot in the game against Runcorn is expected to be out of the side for about 3 weeks. Full back Neil Price is also expected to miss the match and Midfielder Kevin Durham is only rated as 50/50 to play. The match kicks off at 3pm at Loakes Park. Next Wednesday the Blues are away to Welling kick-off 7.30pm.

● INJURED: Graham Bressington