

Wanderers flop at the double

HORROR SHOW BLUES!

WYCOMBE Wanderers slumped to another two defeats this week, slipping further down the league and making another early cup exit.

Title-chasing Stafford Rangers stuffed three goals past the hapless Blues on Saturday further sinking their hopes of survival in the GM Conference.

The team had problems even before the match when a three-car shunt on the M1 caused a traffic jam.

The Blues arrived 25 minutes before kick-off and club secretary John Goldsworthy said: "That was not the cause of our defeat but it did not help."

Extra time

Former Manchester United and England winger Gordon Hill was the architect of Wycombe's defeat.

He scored inside the first quarter of an hour then set up the gangling Mal Dunkley to head home after 31 minutes. Dunkley scored again four minutes from time, striking a long free-kick under the bar to make it 3-0.

Wycombe crashed against the Rocks of Bognor Regis on Tuesday, slumping to a 1-0 defeat at home in the first round of the GMAC Cup.

By HARRY WARSCHAUER

Striker Jeff Cooper hit the winner from six yards two minutes from the end of extra time.

The match was spoiled by Bognor's constant use of the offside trap, with Wycombe falling for it time after time.

Goldsworthy said the club was looking to buy at least two or three quality players. A move to buy Sutton striker Edgar Awartefe for £5,000 failed when he turned down the move.

Tomorrow Wycombe are away to Enfield who won 5-0 when they visited Loakes Park earlier this season, but who lost to Aylesbury in the FA Cup last weekend.