

Tough mission for Kelman

JIM KELMAN, one of the latest managers to join the ranks of the GM Vauxhall Conference, spoke this week of the task he faces to keep his club, Wycombe, in the top non-League flight, writes Peter Ernest.

He has taken over at a club who have had more than their share of managerial problems this season and who find themselves in the relegation area.

Mr Kelman replaced Peter Suddaby at Wycombe three weeks ago after spells at Newbury, Hungerford and Maidenhead.

"Quite simply, we have got to stay in the Conference," he said, "but it is going to be hard work and that is something I believe in."

He has already signed John Granville, 31, a former Millwall goalkeeper, whom he feels will add character to the team, and striker Tim Barry, 20, a Loughborough student. Both play at home to Wealdstone tomorrow.
