

Major upset for the Blues

By RUTH PAYNE

DISMAL Wycombe, holders of the Berks and Bucks Cup, are out of this year's competition - beaten by a team a league below them.

The Blues crashed to a 3-1 defeat by Vauxhall-Opel league high-flyers Windsor and Eton on Tuesday night, Kevin Durham scoring their solitary consolation goal.

The shock defeat follows a controversial and expensive 2-2 draw away to Sutton Utd in the Conference League last Saturday.

Sutton scored a dubious-looking equaliser deep into injury time as Wycombe keeper John Granville lay sprawling from an opponent's challenge.

Two-goal hero Mark West had earlier collected a broken nose and a booking, and team-mate Kirk Corbin six stitches in a cut chin.

Despite the travelling fans' fury against the referee - Sutton's first goal came from a penalty for handball - manager Jim Kelman declared himself satisfied:

"Before the match began everyone would have been happy to leave with a point," he said.

Tomorrow (Saturday) the Blues meet Macclesfield Town at Loakes Park, kick-off 3pm. Defender Michael Barnes has returned to Maidenhead Utd after failing a fitness test on his knee.