

Wycombe take extra safety precautions

WYCOMBE Wanderers are making extra security arrangements for tomorrow with a bumper 2,000 expected for the FA Cup fourth qualifying round encounter with Kettering.

Although club officials do not expect trouble extra police will be drafted in to keep watch over the all-GM Vauxhall Conference affair.

"We are treating it simply as a big league match," said Wycombe secretary John Goldsworthy. "We have discussed extra arrangements with our friends down at the police station just in case."

If the match finishes all square the replay will be held at Rockingham Road on Tuesday. If not there will be a Capital League match at Barnet.

● Blues have drawn Southern Premier side Cambridge City in the third round of the FA Trophy.

The Devils are enjoying a successful season and are fifth in the Southern table. Their previous best in the competition was two seasons ago when they were knocked out in the second round by Boston United.

● Marlow have also drawn Southern League opposition in the form of Worcester.

The City have a far more impressive record in the competition having reached the quarter-finals on three occasions and will be difficult to beat on their St George's Lane pitch.

Although in the bottom half of the Southern premier table they have several games in hand over all the other sides.

THE magic of the FA Cup comes to our area this weekend with both Slough Town and Wycombe Wanderers taking part in the fourth and last qualifying round.

Wycombe have the tie of the round with the visit to Loakes Park of Kettering Town. The Poppies currently top the Conference table, with games in hand over all of their rivals and have a victory over Wanderers' earlier in the season.

A large crowd is guaranteed for the game, with Kettering expecting to bring around 1,000 supporters with them.

Another attractive tie will be at Wexham Park where Slough Town play host to Beazer Homes League leaders Dartford, managed by former Crystal Palace, Spurs and England winger Peter Taylor.

In the Vauxhall-Opel League division one basement, Chesham travel to highly-placed Staines Town, where they will have to work hard to pick up even a point. New manager Pat Morrissey is keen to strengthen the side and United could
