

It's Merthyr at home!

Wycombe Wanderers have a great chance of reaching the last eight of the FA Trophy after drawing South Wales side Merthyr Tydfil at home.

The Martyrs are the third consecutive Beazer Homes Southern Premier side Blues have drawn in the competition so they will not have an easy passage.

But Merthyr, despite their brilliant 3-1 win a

Aylesbury in the second round on Saturday, are having a mediocre season in the League.

They are in the bottom half on the same number of points as Wealdstone, whom Wanderers put out at the weekend.

The Penydarren Park club reached the quarter-finals of the Trophy in 1978-79.

The match will be played on February 25.
