

Jim is fined

MANAGER Jim Kelman was fined by his own players for arriving late for Saturday's top-of-the-table game with Kettering.

"I was on club business at the time and I was a wee bit late," he said. "Just about everyone has been fined for some reason or other. It is all lighthearted stuff really and all the funds go towards our end of season tour to Portugal."

The club will be sending its strongest ever party to Portugal for their annual two-match tour - even though the itinery has yet to be finalised.

Only John Granville, Keith Barrett, Dave Carroll, Andy Russell and John Kerr of the first team squad will be absent.

At the end of the season John Kerr will fly to the United States to rejoin Boston Allstars for their outdoor season. He will continue playing through the summer before returning to Loakes Park for the start of next season.
