

Blues news

JUNIORS, accompanied by adults, will be admitted free to Wycombe's final home league game of the season on Bank Holiday Monday.

More than 100 schoolchildren have also been allocated free tickets for the game and the players will be kicking free footballs into the crowd.

● There will be a collection for the Hillsborough Disaster Fund at that game. Collections will be made at the turnstiles.

● Blues groundsman Rod Lavers ran an impressive two hours, 55 minutes and 39 seconds in Sunday's ADT London Marathon, raising around £300 for the Sue Ryder Home for cancer patients.

"It was my first marathon...and probably my last," said Rod. "My legs began to give away at about 24 miles."