

Kelman slams turncoat fans

BLUES boss Jim Kelman hit out on Saturday at the so-called fans who turned on him and his side after the defeat at Chorley.

He was incensed by an offensive minority who launched an uncharacteristic verbal assault after the 1-0 reverse at Victory Park.

Kelman said: "Some of the people who claim to support Wycombe don't really support the club at all.

"I had some come up to me a shout in my face 'rubbish'. They seem to think we have a divine right to win, but they must learn that we don't.

"We dominated long periods of the game, particularly in the second half, but our finishing was poor and we paid the price.

"We face another tough match against Yeovil on Tuesday night and we want all our crowd behind us, not going against us. Most of our fans are great, but there are some who don't help at all."

Wanderers will be without the injured Matt Crossley on Saturday, as well as full-back Steve Abbey, who will be on business in the United States.

That should mean a full game for exciting young winger Steve Guppy, who has thrilled the Loakes Park crowd with his brief appearances as substitute.
