

Club takes nostalgia trip

SOME of the best players in the history of Wycombe Wanderers are to tread the Loakes Park turf one last time before it is bulldozed.

Director and former manager Brian Lee hit upon the idea to say goodbye to the old sloping ground with a old-players reunion.

Former players are asked to contact Brian by March to book their place in the nostalgia team. Any former player who calls will be guaranteed a game.

"This will be a day of unashamed nostalgia," said Brian. "It's positively their last opportunity to play at Loakes Park before the bulldozers move in.

"It will be a bit of fun and a great chance to hold a reunion before we move to our new stadium."

The match will be played on Sunday April 29, kicking off at 2.30pm. A series of five-a-side matches stretching across the pitch will be staged. The games will be open to the public.

A commemorative brochure will also be released. Former club secretary John Goldsworthy is compiling the document.

He is anxious to hear from anyone who may have old photographs, programmes or newspaper cuttings for the brochure.

The most interesting items will be put on display in a memorabilia corner in one of the public bars at the new ground.

The club is also trying to arrange a match against First Division opposition, which is still to be finalised.
