

Wanderers gave us a day to remember

MAY I take the opportunity through your newspaper of thanking Wycombe Wanderers FC and Brian Lee, for organising the "farewell asides" on the famous old pitch last Sunday afternoon.

We were received most royally by both the club and the supporters. It gave many players the opportunity to turn back the clock for a while, renew old friendships and relive many happy memories.

Good luck to the club on their new ground next season.

M Priestly
Hilton Avenue
Dunstable
