

Super stadia are all around you

I READ with interest the comments made by your reporter Nick Goodman concerning the Kingstonian v Marlow match (Free Press, April 20).

Mr Goodman seemed particularly impressed with Kingstonian's new ground, describing it as "the fabulous Kingsmeadow Stadium" and "a miniature Wembley".

He may not be aware, however, that there are a number of clubs in the GM Vauxhall Conference who have grounds as good as, or even better than Kingstonian. Boston United, Merthyr Tydfil and Yeovil Town are examples that come immediately to mind.

Altrincham is another fine venue to watch top class semi-professional football at. Perhaps Mr Goodman should pay a visit to a ground like Moss Lane to see for himself.

Wycombe Wanderers (the area's premier football club) play at Altrincham on May 5. Mr Goodman, why not make the trip up to Cheshire to see the game? I feel sure that the facilities and the standard of football on offer will be better than anything you are likely to find in South Bucks on that day.
