

Blues go in style

WYCOMBE Wanderers finished a roller coaster soccer season in 10th position following wins from their final two Conference matches.

Andy Kerr was voted player of the season, proving to be a highly popular choice among fans and officials. The choice of a defender showed that the fans did not forget Wycombe's struggle for points at the end of last year.

The Blues fittingly won the final Conference game on Loakes Park's sloping pitch 2-1 against Stafford Rangers, in a game that started with a goal from the visitors inside the first minute.

Everyone seemed to stand still as Stafford put the ball in the net, but Wycombe picked themselves up and scored 10 minutes later through Mark West being in the right place at the right time.

Winner

The winner was brilliantly set-up by Martin Lambert, who in a short time has established himself as the backbone of the Wycombe team this season.

He manipulated the defence enabling Dave Carroll, player of the month for April, to score.

Against Altrincham on Saturday, the Blues took the game 2-1, thanks to goals from Gary Smith and Steve Guppy.
