

Forest football giants to grace Adams Park

AS WYCOMBE Wanderers' players prepared for their first and no doubt painful pre-season training session yesterday, confirmation came through from Brian Clough's right-hand man, Ronnie Fenton, that Nottingham Forest, led by Clough himself, will be bringing their strongest first team to play Wycombe at Adams Park on August 9th.

The Forest side will include not-for-sale World Cup stars Des Walker, Steve Hodge and Stuart Pearce.

Forest fly in from their pre-season tour of Sweden on Wednesday, August 8th, to stay in a nearby hotel the night before the game.

Fenton, assistant manager at Forest, informed Blues' secretary Alan Hutchinson that Clough has received massive offers from abroad for stars such as Nigel Clough, Walker and Hodge, but is declining them all to keep his Littlewoods Cup winners side together.

And the Wycombe public will be the first to witness Forest on home soil this side of the World Cup, as Adams Park receives a glorious opening night of star quality football.

It is also expected they will be parading the Littlewoods Cup to a near-capacity Wanderers' crowd. "Brian Clough will definitely be there," Hutchinson enthused just before the Bucks Free Press deadline yesterday.
