Naseem set to join the team?

STRIKING prospect Naseem Bashir looks set to join the Rebels after a frustrating period spent in the shadows at Reading.

The slightly-built forward player was released by the Third Division club at the tail end of last season, and he has been with Slough throughout pre-season training.

Much of his time at Elm Park was as a reserve player, though he did make four first-team appearances, scoring in his only full match, that being against Chester City.

"We are just seeing how things work out at the moment," said Slough boss Alan Davies. "I heard good things about him, and he is going to carry on training with us to see if he wants to stay, and if we want him to stay."
