

HOT START FOR BLUES

WYCOMBE Wanderers warmed up nicely for the new season this week with a win and a draw in a run-up to the start of the Conference matches.

On Saturday the Blues travelled to Corby Town in their first match to snatch a decisive 4-2 victory.

Wycombe were left trailing in the 20th minute when the home side scored from the penalty spot, but equalised 10 minutes later thanks to a Keith Ryan flick into the net from a cross by Dave Carroll.

By KAREN HOY

Corby went ahead again before a revived Wycombe came back in the second half to regain control and take the lead. Ryan scored Wycombe's second and Simon Stapleton added two more to make the Blues' day.

On Tuesday night Wycombe drew 1-1 in a friendly away match against Borehamwood. Kevin Durham was the scorer for the Blues.

Wycombe are still looking at players but no firm signings have yet been made. former Oxford United player, Peter Rhoades-Brown is still on trial with the Blues.

Wycombe's first home friendly is against Reading on Tuesday, August 14.

ON TRIAL: Peter Rhoades-Brown