

VAUXHALL Conference club Slough Town are looking to broaden the sporting facilities available at the Wexham Park Stadium. The Rebels have presented plans to build a golf driving range on their training pitch adjacent to the Conference ground. The club are now awaiting council approval for a 300-yard course with targets, a clubhouse and golf shop.

The Wexham Park Stadium is built on a 9-acre site on the outskirts of Europe's largest industrial estate. The new golf range will service two local courses providing the only driving facility in the area.

THE TIMES newspaper has become the first national daily to feature midweek Vauxhall Conference results in full-out detail. The expanded service will now include half-times, scorers, times of goals and attendances for every midweek Conference fixture.

In addition to the results summary, The Times has increased its editorial coverage of the Vauxhall Conference. The newspaper, which features a weekly preview each Friday, has introduced a regular weekend match report to appear in the Monday edition.

VAUXHALL Conference club Bath City have opened negotiations with tenants Bristol Rovers to discuss long-term development at Twerton Park. The two parties will examine plans for the building of a new all-seater stand, a police control box and the implementation of Lord Justice Taylor's Report into the Hillsborough Stadium Disaster.

THE FA Cup starts in earnest for eight Vauxhall Conference clubs on Saturday when they enter the first qualifying rounds of the competition - 11 victories away from a Wembley final appearance.

Amongst the representatives are three of the top six Conference sides - Barnet (2), Wycombe Wanderers (5) and Altrincham (6). They are joined by Boston United, Cheltenham Town, Fisher Athletic, Gateshead and Slough Town.

THE EIGHTH edition of The Mail on Sunday's Non-League Football magazine is now on sale. Comprising 64 pages of news and information from the semi-professional pyramid, the publication is available from leading newsagents priced £1.40.

The latest edition includes comprehensive details of this year's FA Cup competition, a review of the Vauxhall Conference promotion and relegation issues and colour photographs of the new stadia at Wycombe Wanderers and Yeovil Town.

THE GM Vauxhall Conference has issued a time schedule for ground criteria to all member clubs. The four-tier programme, detailing new stadium, financial and administrative requirements, will be implemented this season. Clubs failing to comply with all criteria by 1993 may face expulsion from the competition.

VAUXHALL Conference front-runners Yeovil Town have agreed professional terms with seven of their playing staff. Steve Rutter (defence), Peter Conning, Derek Dawkins, Andy Wallace (midfield), Nicky Dent, Mickey Spencer and Paul Wilson (forwards) have now signed full-time contracts at Huish Park. This raises to 13 the number of full-time footballers at the Conference club including six registered on the YTS scheme.

VAUXHALL Conference leaders Kettering Town registered their sixth consecutive victory on Saturday with the 3-0 defeat of Runcorn. The Northants club now head the table with 19 points - the largest total recorded at this stage of any Conference campaign.

Kettering are one of three Vauxhall Conference clubs to maintain an unbeaten record sharing the distinction with Wycombe Wanderers and Yeovil Town. The club extended this sequence at Slough on Tuesday.

BARNET set a seasonal Vauxhall Conference attendance record last week when 4,261 spectators watched the 1-0 home defeat by leaders Kettering Town. The Underhill crowd is the second largest for a pre-Christmas fixture in the Conference.

The top-of-the-table game at Barnet, which was delayed ten minutes to enable spectators entry into the stadium, attracted a higher crowd than 17 Rumbelows Cup ties that evening.

VAUXHALL Conference side Stafford Rangers have signed former Aston Villa and Birmingham midfielder Des Bremner from Third Division Walsall. The 38-year-old, who will play on a monthly contract at Marston Road, made his debut in last week's Bob Lord Trophy victory over Boston United.

During his professional career, Mr Bremner made over 550 League appearances for Hibernian, Aston Villa, Birmingham City and Walsall.

VAUXHALL Conference front runners Telford United have secured the services of former England semi-professional striker Carl Richards. The Blackpool forward moves to the Bucks Head Ground for an initial short term spell.

Richards, who enjoyed a successful term at Enfield before joining the professional game, made his debut in Saturday's 2-1 victory over Welling United.
