

Blues lads set for trial

Report by PETE LANSLEY

FOUR Wycombe players travel to Kingstonian tomorrow (Wednesday) to compete in the representative match against the Vauxhall League side in what is effectively an England trials match.

For such games will be taking place over the country, largely without the current England semi-professional team. Selection from these matches will be for England's squad for the matches against Wales on February 12, at Stafford, and against Italy on March 5, at Kettering.

Barnet boss Barry Fry, in charge of the FA side, told Midweek that Wycombe were unlucky to only have four players in the squad. He said: "I picked Creaser as well in my original 18, but had to cut two out. It would've been five each from Wycombe and Barnet otherwise."

VFL Squad: Paul Hyde (Hayes), Gary Westwood (Wokingham), Tony Pampllett (Redbridge), Graham Marriner (Bognor Regis), Eddie Martin (Dagenham), Bobby Purser (Wokingham), Andy Dear (Kingstonian), Dave Lay (Marlow), Steve Lambert (Aylesbury Utd), John Warden (Carshalton Ath), Mark Biggins (Woking), Paul Furlong (Enfield), Conrad Kane (Carshalton Ath), Francis Vines (Kingstonian), Tim Buzaglo (Woking), Chris Dixon (Hayes), Dwight Marshall (Grays), Ian Brown (Grays), Paul Watts (Redbridge F), Andy Hessenthaler (Redbridge F).

FA Squad: Andy Pape (Enfield), Gary Phillips (Barnet), Paul Wilson (Barnet), Duncan Horton (Welling Utd), Andy Kerr (Wycombe Wands), Richard Nugent (Barnet), Mark Hone (Welling Utd), Steve Thompson (Slough), Paul Rogers (Sutton Utd), David Carroll (Wycombe Wands), Phil Handford (Welling Utd), Mark West (Wycombe Wands), Nicky Evans (Wycombe Wands), Terry Robbins (Welling Utd), Graham Pearce (Enfield), Andrew Clarke (Barnet).
