

New faces make debut

EVERYONE played their part in Wycombe's 2-1 win on Saturday.

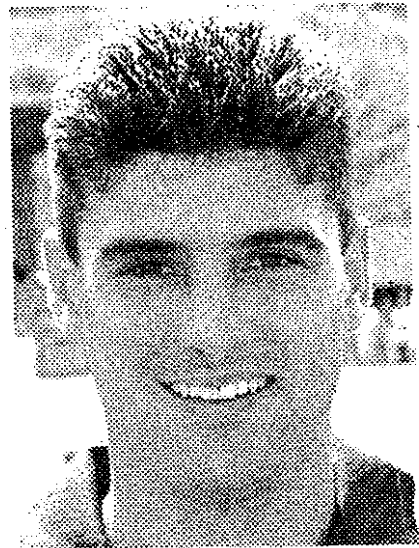

New signings, defender Jason Cousins, and goalkeeper Paul Hyde looked impressively composed and committed on their debuts.

Hyde must have boosted his self-confidence by making vital saves at crucial moments and was very assertive when claiming looping crosses.

Martin O'Neill said of his most expensive signing of the summer: "He did fine.

He was very nervous before the game as it was a step up for him. He will certainly be getting first bite of the cherry in regard to being first team goalie, but that does not put Chuck Moussaddik out of the reckoning."

Other impressive performances came from Simon Stapleton, who was an impressive lynchpin for Wycombe's domination in midfield, and striker Mickey Nuttall, who looked very sharp and was unlucky not to score.

Martin was impressed with the all-round team performance saying: "We did very well I thought and it was a very entertaining match."
