

Fans hurl coins on to pitch

COINS were thrown from the terraces at Adams Park during Wycombe Wanderers' league game against Barrow on Saturday.

High Wycombe Police confirmed 20 coins landed on the pitch following a Barrow penalty ten minutes before the final whistle.

Barrow defender Paul Rowlands fell to the ground as he went to pick the ball out of the net. But Wycombe keeper Paul Hyde just beat him to it.

While police say Rowlands was felled by a coin, Barrow's assistant manager Graham Heathcote said the player collided with Hyde and the goal-post.

"As far as I am concerned there were no missiles," said Mr Heathcote.

Wycombe Wanderers' club secretary, John Goldsworthy, warned Wycombe fans they face a life ban from the ground if caught throwing anything on to the pitch.

● Match report: Page 69
