

Market plea goes to Whitehall

WYCOMBE Wanderers have appealed to Environment Secretary Michael Heseltine after the district council turned down plans to use the ground's car park for a Sunday market.

A council spokesman said: "The Hillbottom Road car park is within the green belt area and a market would cause a lot of noise and disturbance on a Sunday when the residents already put up with Saturday matches."