

IN THE BLUE CORNER

LOVE which blossomed during Wycombe's successful FA Trophy run last season will be consummated in the eyes of the big referee in the sky when Rena Frontalski and Chris Perrin get wed on May 30.

Rena, who organises the supporters' coaches to away games, was wooed the Wanderers way when Chris, the old romantic, took her out to lunch before Blues' quarter-final victory up at Northwich last season.

The couple also left their mark on a trip to Malta last year, when they adorned the walls of a bar with Wycombe scarves and flags.

Now the impassioned Blues fans, both 32, will tie the knot at St Wulstan's Church in Totteridge before moving onto the reception — suitably at Adams Park's Vere Suite.

Who said romance was dead?

Rena, from Micklefield, watched her first Wycombe game when aged ten. The couple will live at Chris's house in Lane End.

●CONTACT Rena if you wish to book a seat in the two supporters' coaches leaving for Redbridge next Thursday. Coaches depart at 5pm, and prices are £8 (or £7 for centre spot members, £6 for children). Telephone 0494 438189.

●MRS G Starkey is this week's £400 Leagueline winner, while Miss DC Fawkes and Mrs M Board receive £25 each. The Lucky Letters are I, Q and S with a £618.60 dividend.

●STEVE Guppy, after reading Andy Kerr's thoughts on predestination in Midweek, is now convinced his team mate must be the next David Ike.
