

Trialists strive to make mark

WYCOMBE Wanderers got back to playing football this week after their summer break.

A team consisting of ex-Wanderers youth players and ex-first-year professionals from League clubs, lost 1-0 in Monday's trial match at Egham.

Winning

Team: Gothard, Marchant, Keen, Cousins, Price, Taylor, Davies, Tivey, Underwood, Antoine, Burke.
Subs: Miller, Fishlock, Di Cocchio

Wycombe played their first pre-season friendly at Fairford on Tuesday, winning 3-0.

Blues opened the scoring on five minutes. Ty Gooden crossed the ball in and, in the ensuing melee, Mark

FOOTBALL

West fired into the roof of the net.

Then, after 12 minutes, Wanderers were 2-0 up, West scoring from the penalty spot.

Wycombe made it 3-0 on 80 minutes. Gooden beat two defenders and although his shot came back off the bar, Alec Norman chested it down to score.

Wycombe: Moussaddik, Spalding, Covington, Cousins, Crossley, Hutchinson, Stapleton, Hall, Gooden, West, Casey.

Wycombe then changed the team around at half time in a useful workout.

Meanwhile, Tottenham have announced their team to play at Wycombe in next Tuesday's friendly (ko 7.45pm).

Tottenham XI: Erik Thorstvedt, Dean Austin, David McDonald, Terry Fenwick, Stephen Sedgley, Darren Caskey, Gerard Momahon, Kevin Watson, John Hendry, Peter Beadle, Paul Moran, Ian Hendon, Jeffrey Minton, Scott Houghton, Lee Hodges

● ANDY Kerr has been enjoying life at Premier League club Wimbledon, where he has been taking part in trials.

The 26-year-old Blues defender trained at Plough Lane last week, and played in two reserve team friendlies.

Kerr played in two 3-1 victories last week, over Baldock on Wednesday and against Leatherhead on Saturday.