

BLUE CORNER

WYCOMBE fans will be pleased to hear that Farnborough keeper John Power, who broke his leg playing against Wycombe in January, has recovered full fitness and was due to make his Conference comeback last Saturday.

● POLICE have agreed to move Wycombe's Christmas Bank Holiday game with Slough back 24 hours to Tuesday, December 28.

● WITH the Championship Shield retained, Blues set about keeping hold of another renamed trophy when they enter the Drinkwise Cup in the second round. Wanderers travel to Welling on Tuesday, October 20.

● JIM McMelvin said he was pleased to hear some proper chants ringing around Adams Park last Saturday. Cries of 'Celtic, Celtic' made Jim feel at home.

● THE reserves drew 0-0 at Sutton United on Monday. The youth team, who won their FA Youth Cup match 3-1 last week, had their Wednesday night game postponed but visit Rothwell next Monday.

● MICKEY Nuttall has landed on his feet. The well-travelled former Wanderers man scored on his first two successive Saturdays with Dagenham/Redbridge as they have found their form.

● THE best marketing ploy for the Blues players' new Vandanel shell suits had to bide its time. Club blazers and ties continued to be the order of the day until the defeat at Bath.

Then, the lucky omen lost, on came the casual gear you will see the Wycombe lads strutting around in after matches these days.

● MARTIN O'Neill has won The Mail on Sunday Manager of the Month award for August and September.

The former Northern Ireland international, whose side equalled the Vauxhall Conference record of nine consecutive wins, will receive a cheque for £250 from the national newspaper.

● WANDERERS are introducing a credit card hotline for supporters to book seats in advance, from 9am-5pm on weekdays and between 12-1pm on Saturdays.

Supporters can book their £6 seats and collect tickets up to 15 minutes before kick off by phoning 0494 472100.

Minimum credit card bookings accepted are for £10, and this scheme excludes all-ticket matches and family stand tickets.

In the family stand, one adult and three children can sit for a combined cost of £13.50. These tickets are only available on match days from entrance four as soon as the turnstiles open.

The Corner Flag shop is now open every Sunday from 10am-1.30pm to coincide with the new Sunday market at Adams Park.
