Fans snap up Trophy tickets

AN FA Trophy ticket frenzy is well under way with more than 20,000 having been sold for Wycombe Wanderers' clash with Runcorn at Wembley on Sunday, May 9.

The club have received more ticket allocations to cope with demand. They expect the attendance to reach the 35,000 mark.

There are still 1,500 Olympic Galley seats left, priced at £20 and £18. A further 3,700 £12 seats are now on sale.

TICKET DETAILS

And 2,000 £8 tickets for seats under the Royal box, which do not have a restricted view, are up for grabs.

It looks as though the stadium will be a sea of blue for Wanderers' bid to emulate

Colchester United's non-League double of last year.

Runcorn have sold around 1,500 tickets to date out of their 10,000 allocation.

Tickets are on sale at Adams Park; Bucks Free Press, Castle Street; WH Smith, High Street; Wycombe Wines, Crendon Street; Wycombe Tourist Information Centre, Cornmarket; Stokenchurch Bookshop; Crocks and Crystals, The Parade, Bourne End.
