

BLUES FANS WILL LINE ROADS TO SEE HEROES

Heroes' welcome: The Blues travel in their victory bus after winning the FA Trophy in 1991

THOUSANDS of Wycombe Wanderers fans are expected to line the streets next Monday to salute their football heroes.

The triumphant Blues will be touring High Wycombe's town centre in an open-top bus the day after the FA Trophy final.

Fans are being invited along to celebrate the club's most successful season in its 109-year history.

The league-winning squad will be proudly displaying the GM Vauxhall Conference Trophy and, if things go according to plan, the FA Trophy.

The Metro Line bus, which has been organised and donated by Midweek and the Bucks Free Press, will leave Davenport Vernon garage, London Road, High Wycombe, at 6.15pm.

The bus will travel along the A40, London Road, towards the town centre. It will go down the by-pass before heading over Abbey Way fly-over.

It will then make its way to Frogmoor before travelling through Church Street and the High Street.

The bus will end its journey outside Wycombe District Council offices in Queen Victoria Road, where a civic reception is to be held at around 7pm.

WYCOMBE Wanderers manager Martin O'Neill is keeping his options open over the Nottingham Forest job created by the retirement of Brian Clough.

It would be a shame to lose him, but perhaps Cloughie would like a job swap?

Only one snag: would there be room for another big head at the club?

Miserable banker

UNHAPPY David Holmes went berserk when he saw a picture of himself in the Bucks Free Press Wycombe Wanderers' supplement stating he had supported the Blues all his life.

Mr Holmes, who works for the NatWest Bank in High Wycombe, is in fact a lifelong supporter of Slough Town, where he is a vice president.

The picture was sent to us by his work colleagues because they were fed up with him slagging off Wycombe Wanderers and going on about Slough.

But the miserable banker failed to see the funny side of their joke.

He even considered taking legal action before it was pointed out that it was hardly defamatory to be accused of following a far superior team than the sad shower he really does support.
