

Quinn pays tribute to Blues after ending barren run

SKY Blues striker Mick Quinn, who ended a personal goal famine on Wednesday night, believes his side are by no means home and dry in this Coca-Cola Cup tie.

"The tie is not yet over. I am expecting a hard game at their tiny

Mick Quinn: Keeping his feet on the ground

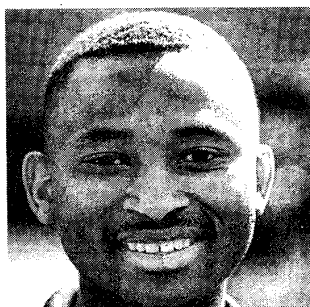

By CLAIRE NASH

little ground at Wycombe. Their team has got a bit more skill and style compared to some of the smaller sides we have played," he said.

The 31-year-old Liverpoolian added that he and fellow Coventry players were made to feel very aware of previous giantkilling feats performed against their club, including Sutton's upset in the FA Cup, and Scarborough's 3-2 aggregate victory in last year's Coca-Cola Cup second round.

"We want to ensure that does not happen again," said Quinn, who scored his first goal since a hat-trick against Arsenal at the beginning of the season.

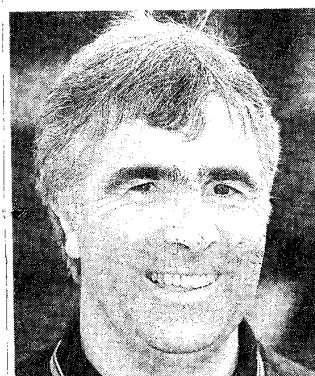

"That is one of the longest stretches I have been through without scoring. A great weight has been lifted from my shoulders. It does not matter who the opposition is, it does not take anything away from the value of a goal," said the striker, who says he has never gone six or seven games without scoring in his whole career.

Peter Ndlovu: International commitments

Coventry winger Peter Ndlovu, who played more quietly than expected in midfield on Wednesday, graced the cup tie just before returning to Zimbabwe for international football duty. He said of the game: "Wycombe were quite good. It should be a good match in the second leg."

Bobby Gould

BOBBY Gould was loath to sound notes of confidence in his side wrapping this Coca-Cola Cup tie up at Adams Park on Tuesday, October 5.

"I can't say whether this lead is good enough until we go down there," said Gould, who graphically described before the game how his players have the scar tissue of Scarborough's shock defeat in the competition last season, itching away.

He added: "Wycombe are a cavalier team and if their fans are in the same mode, I hope 3-0 is enough, but we won't know until October 5."