

The curse of Spot the Bawl

➤ MOST people would be delighted to have their picture in our Spot the Bawl competition (see page 2) but Bill Willson can't seem to dodge our photographer!

Wycombe Wanderers fan Bill Willson plays dodge the photographer every time he goes to Adams Park - and fails miserably!

Despite his best intentions, the teacher is forever being snapped by our determined Spot the Bawl photographer - but has yet to earn any money.

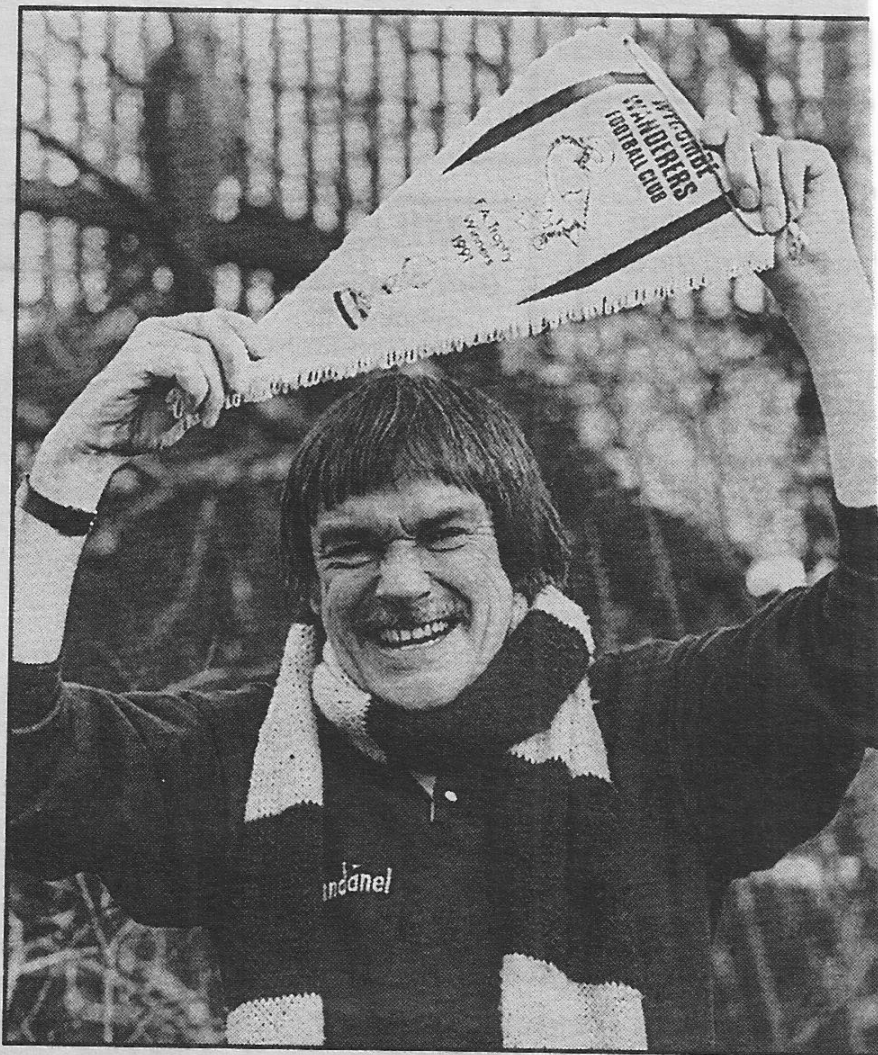

Bill first made his vow when he was spotted by someone not very impressed by the fact he goes to a lot of football matches!

He said: "I spend most of my time trying to avoid him, but I've now been picked out three times.

"It wouldn't be so bad if I was winning the money, but instead there's always a picture of me looking very foolish!

"There are about six of us who go to home and away games, but we tend to stand in different parts of the ground. I always seem to be pictured and they never are."

Like many of the Adams

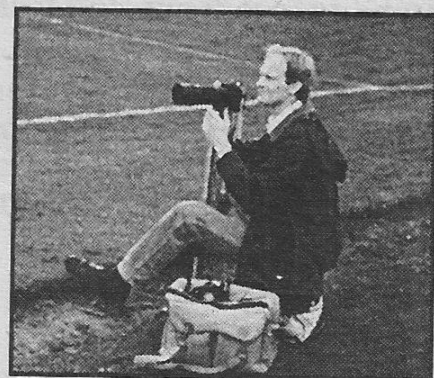

Bill wins Spot The Bawl at last!

Park fans, Bill often enjoys a chat with freelance photographer Brian Southam, who first started taking our Spot the Bawl pictures.

"I had my camera at the opening game of the season, at Carlisle, and took a picture of him to try and get my own back. I hope you can print a picture of him for a change!"

Of course, we're happy to oblige!

The man who started it all: Brian Southam