

Trio make elite side

Cousins, Evans and Guppy are picked for division's XI

Stalwart: Jason Cousins reigns supreme in defence

PLAYERS' efforts to put Wycombe on the verge of promotion have been recognised by their fellow footballers.

Jason Cousins, team captain Terry Evans, and Steve Guppy were picked for the Division Three Select XI at Sunday night's Professional Footballers' Association awards in London. Frenchman Eric Cantona received the player of the year award at the same glittering ceremony.

Wycombe were the only side to have three players in the XI.

"It was a shock. I just went there to rub shoulders with the stars.

To see my name in the list was a big surprise," said Cousins.

"I have had my ups and downs," admitted the full back who has been one of, if not the most, consistent of Blues' players this season after a nightmarish double sending-off. "The other lads deserved it. It speaks volumes for how well we have done this season," he added.

Evans, who was honoured for his massive contribution in Blues' defence and attack before injury struck in February, said: "It just helps make it worthwhile."

Division Three XI: Martin Hodge (Rochdale), Jason Cousins (Wycombe), Terry Evans (Wycombe), Alan Reeves (Rochdale), Roger Stanislaus (Bury), Steve Guppy (Wycombe), Tony Rigby (Bury), Neil Lennon (Crewe), Tony Ellis (Preston), Dean Spink (Shrewsbury), David Reeves (Carlisle)

Big contribution:
Terry Evans

Worrisome: Winger Steve Guppy gives full backs cause for concern