

GOLDEN OLDIES

Wycombe Wanderers have entrusted veterans Cyrille Regis and Simon Garner with the job of taking Martin O'Neill's team into the First Division, despite the fact that they're the oldest strike force in the League.

Former Villa star Regis, 36, and ex-Blackburn stalwart Garner, 34, may share 70 years between them but they aren't finished yet.

"We're having a great time," says big Cyrille. "We're forming quite a partnership on and off the pitch. We're always talking football and still scoring a few goals as well. I'm delighted to be at Wycombe and I think people should keep an eye out for us."

Garner: second oldest swinger in town