

Catwalk stalwart Keith Ryan models Blues' new away kit

Strip could grace San Siro

WYCOMBE Wanderers will have an attractive AC Milan look about them after launching a new red and black striped away strip this week.

Player Keith Ryan took the starring role on the catwalk on Monday when Blues unveiled the kit.

It replaces the two-year-old green and white striped Celtic-style ensemble.

Wycombe will use their current navy and sky blue quartered strip and yellow away kit next season and possibly beyond, said marketing manager Mark Austin.
