

Jumping with joy: Wycombe Wanderers' ladies team celebrate their promotion to Division Two after a successful season

Women clinch some glory for Wanderers

WHILE Wycombe Wanderers men's team have had nothing to write home about this season, it has been a different story for the women.

In a season where Wanderers'

Division Two performances have left fans tearing their hair out, Wycombe's ladies side have been giving their supporters something to smile about.

They have clinched the Division

Three championship of the Southern Region Women's League and will now enjoy the heady heights of playing in Division Two next season.

With the league made up of four divisions, the women are steadily working their way up and are now hoping to go from strength to strength next year to add to the success they have achieved this term.
