

JUMPING FOR JOY: A year on from his departure from Adams Park, thousands of Wycombe Wanderers fans looked Wembley-wards on Monday to see former Blues boss Martin O'Neill guide Leicester City into the Premiership with a thrilling 2-1 win over Crystal Palace in extra time. O'Neill and his assistant Paul Franklin were joined by another ex-Wanderer, goalkeeper Paul Hyde, who has just signed a one-year contract with the Foxes.