

Come on, you Blues

WYCOMBE Wanderers face Nottingham Forest in the second round of the Coca Cola Cup on Tuesday.

We wish them well in their fight back after going down 1-0 in the first leg at Forest on Wednesday night.

Above all, we hope that the supporters will turn out in force and pack the stands for what should be the biggest match so far at Adams Park this season.

Shopkeeper Alan blows final whistle

WYCOMBE Wanderers press officer Alan Hutchinson has decided to sell his business so he can devote more time to his beloved football team.

Alan, of Crocks and Crystal, in The Parade, Bourne End, and his wife Kathy, were serving customers for the last time today after more than 17 years.

"We had an offer we couldn't refuse and we've sold it as a going concern," said Alan. It is now owned by Maúriarty Ltd.

It's official for the new stand

WYCOMBE Wanderers new £2m stand will be officially opened tomorrow by the Football Trust before Blues fixture with top-of-the-league Brentford.

The Football Trust, who provided Wanderers with a grant of £1.1m to aid the development of the new stand will be accompanied by High Wycombe's MP Ray Whitney and the Chief Executive of the Football Licensing Authority John Dequidt.

■ Tickets for the second leg of Wycombe's clash with Nottingham Forest in the Coca-Cola Cup are now on sale.

Wanderers home tie on Tuesday is not an all-ticket but tickets can be purchased from either the commercial offices at Adams Park, Wanderers in Town in the Octagon Shopping Centre or on the Credit Card Hotline on (01494) 441118.
