

Referee in the hotseat

THE Blues Supporters Club are holding a panel evening with manager John Gregory, FIFA referee Dermot Gallagher and Inspector Roger Doe, who is in charge of policing at Adams Park.

The session is in the Keen Lounge at Adams Park on Thursday, January 30.

So come along and fire your questions concerning the team, policing around the ground, and refereeing decisions. It is your chance to air your views especially after the Peterborough fiasco.

The panel evening starts at 7.45pm and is free to members and Junior Blues. There is a charge of £1 for non-members.

It follows on from the two previous successful panel evenings held by the club last year.

Also the Blues Supporters Club's Annual Dinner has been arranged for April 10.

This includes a three-course meal with a special after dinner speaker, and, as with last year a
